Dear Friend,

Senior volunteers stay active long after retirement to help school children read, to supply people of all ages with nutritious meals, to mentor inmates for successful community re-entry, and to expand access to services for our elderly and disabled veterans. Norfolk County RSVP supports the efforts of approximately 340 volunteers with free volunteer placement, training and networking, insurance, and transportation reimbursement. Recognizing their impact on our community, RSVP also provides an opportunity each year for local dignitaries, organizations, and media outlets to show their appreciation for senior volunteers at the RSVP Annual Luncheon, August 25.

RSVP is part of the national Senior Corps, with a national motto of "lead with experience." According to Civic Life in America research, volunteerism is associated with higher levels of social connectedness, civic participation, and charitable giving. If you would like to reach this group of engaged seniors with your message of appreciation and to share your services with them, please consider sponsoring our annual luncheon.

A donation of gift certificates or gift items will be used as door prizes and monthly awards for volunteers, recognized in our newsletter along with the winning volunteer. Or a donation of a centerpiece with your business information will be used at the recognition event.

Please consider donating to Norfolk County RSVP. See the enclosed sheet for more details. Thank you for supporting senior volunteers. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

RSVP Advisory Committee
